

Nebraska's Major Land Resource Areas

Legend

67A Central High Plains, Northern Part	107B Iowa and Missouri Deep Loess Hills	60A Pierre Shale Plains
72 Central High Tableland	102C Loess Uplands	73 Rolling Plains and Breaks
76 Central Loess Plains	84 Mixed Sandy and Silty Tableland and Badlands	83B Southern Rolling Pierre Shale Plains
71 Central Nebraska Loess Hills	85 Nebraska Sand Hills
66 Dakota-Nebraska Eroded Tableland	106 Nebraska and Kansas Loess-Drift Hills

